

Welcome to the NZ Hospitality Championship 2017
Class Criteria for Dilmah High Tea

Class - F04

Live Dilmah High Tea

Date 29 July 2017

60 minutes

Entry Fee - $200 per team

A team event consisting of two (2) members: One (1) Chef and One (1) Restaurant Service Person.

Each team will be required to present a High Tea setting to two (2) Guests and prepare one (1) judge's plate, and one (1) for photography, four (4) portions in total.

Special Prize: Dilmah Tea Scholarship - National winners to travel to Sri Lanka in February 2018 to take part in the Dilmah School of Tea, and to mentor students at the MJF Charitable Foundation Culinary Centre.

The winners must be able to travel to Sri Lanka, (travel dates and details with NZChefs Office) and if not, the next runners up shall be offered the travel prize for those two competitors.

Regional winners receive monetary contribution to travel to the National final in Auckland.

Cookery Criteria:

Must be served to guests, then immediately followed by the judge's presentations.

Part A

- i. Two (2) different food items, served to two (2) guests.
- ii. One (1) separate food item, presented with the completed table presentation. (*see note below).

Part B.

Two (2) plated food presentations including teas as an ingredient, one (1) for judging and one (1) for photos, they must be identical to those served to the guests, you must also include separately, the food item being presented on the table as part of the table presentation. Two copies of menu descriptions and recipes MUST be included for the judges.

NZ HOSPITALITY CHAMPIONSHIPS 2017

In association with NZChefs

All food items can be brought in completely finished but plating up and any garnishing if required must be done during the competition. You must serve two (2) of these food items using tea as an ingredient, one (1) Sweet and one (1) Savoury item using Dilmah Tea where the flavour of the tea is clearly evident. They may be served warm or cold.

The Chef will assist the Service Person in taking the dishes to the table, explaining their food style and the rationale behind the tea used within the food. This is a very small component but interaction with the guests must be observed.

(*Note) The third food item is of your choosing, either sweet or savoury, warm or cold, it does not require tea as an ingredient but it must be paired with one of the teas served to the table as outlined below. This 3rd item is not marked as a food item alone, but in how well it is matched to the tea being served, it is this item that must be placed on the completed Presentation Table just prior to guests being seated.

Restaurant Service Criteria:

Must be served to guests, then immediately followed by the judge's presentations.

Competitors are required to prepare and present two (2) different 'tea based' beverages to two (2) guests and one (1) judge's tea, and one (1) for photography, four (4) portions in total. One of these teas must be paired with the third food item (*see Note) above, it is judged on how well it complements the flavours and texture of the food.

Both tea's must be brewed and poured in front of the judges.

Two copies of menu descriptions and recipes MUST be on the table.

The beverages will be:

- I. A loose leaf black tea, served hot. Sponsors product to be used.
- II. A hot or cold tea cocktail (with alcohol) OR hot tea comforter (alcohol optional) brewed from either loose tea or a tea bag (may be a flavoured tea variety).

The tea cocktail or comforter requires a name and recipe card to be displayed. Sponsors' product to be used.

Competitors will have 30 minutes to set up and dress a table to display the food item and beverages, then a further 30 minutes to brew and serve the beverages.

Both team members will be required to present the food items to the guests, explaining rationale in the food/tea matching, the teas used and answering any queries.

Competitors are to supply all ingredients and equipment.

Further information on teas available in New Zealand will be emailed on registration along with tips and advice on tea.

Static Classes:

After registration, competitors with entries for all static classes should report to the steward at the allocated area.

Static exhibits must be completed by the time allocated in the program.

Static exhibits will be provided with table space in the nominated room.

The label with the competitor's number must be displayed with the entry. This will be provided by the steward.

Competitors must unpack and display their own exhibits in the allotted space in the competition display area. Under no circumstance is final preparation work to be done in this area. If final preparation work takes place in this area the work will be disqualified immediately.

The Judges have the right to test, taste and examine all exhibits, if deemed necessary in order to identify products used and to ensure that correct cooking processes have been applied.

All work must be done by the individual competitor and if required, the competitor may be asked to provide evidence to the satisfaction of the Judges that the work is bona fide.

Competitors must provide their own display plates or platters etc.

No display items may show any identification, i.e. school logos.

Where there are restrictions to the size of entry, and these have not been adhered to, disqualification will take place.

Entries that become a health risk during the competition will be removed.

Static exhibits can only be removed between the allocated times as per the timetable.

Access to a kitchen will be limited to the use of a bench if required for 'final' assembly work and a supply of water. No cooking may take place. This area must be cleaned prior to leaving.

Live Classes – Kitchen:

Unless otherwise stated, competitors must supply all food items and the necessary equipment to prepare, cook and serve their dishes.

Competitors are advised not to bring additional display materials, as these will not be marked.

NZ HOSPITALITY CHAMPIONSHIPS 2017

In association with NZChefs

Once a live competition in the kitchen arena has started, no communication may take place between the competitors, or between the competitors and support people outside the arenas. If communication does take place, then the competitors will be disqualified immediately. All enquires during the competition should be directed to the Floor Manager or Head Judge of the competition.

Once a live competition has started, under no circumstances can any equipment, food, liquids or other associated items for the class be brought into the arenas for the competitors to complete the task.

When the allotted time is up, competitors will be asked to “step back from your work station.” If the competitor has not presented all their dishes, set up their static display or completed all the service elements, they will not be judged, and DNC [did not complete] or DNP [did not present] will be entered on the judging sheets. With live competitions ALL plates must be off the bench and in transit for judging.

Full chef whites including hat and neck tie must be worn. Marks will be deducted for incorrect uniform.

For all Protein Classes, protein weights shall be Minimum 120gm and Maximum 180gm unless specified. Anything outside these weights will be deemed disproportionate and may be marked accordingly.

Kitchens:

No equipment may be added to the stove or the bench that will make the height of the stove or bench greater than 150 cm from the floor to the top of the attachment. Any addition must be securely attached and not interfere with its operation, or cause damage to the stove, bench or anybody in the vicinity.

The Salon Director, Chief Judge, Assistant Chief Judge, Head Judge, Safety Officer or Fire Warden or Floor Manager has the right to have the equipment removed at any time of the competition.

Competitors are required to clean their stove, bench, and equipment at the end of the competition. Marks will be deducted if this is not carried out.

Competitors may bring in one trolley per competitor/team. Trolleys must be a standard kitchen trolley not exceeding 3 tiers, 110cm long, 60cm wide, 100cm high [unless otherwise stated] or similar by cubic capacity. The trolley must not be used for preparation. Its use is for storage only.

Bench top deep fryers are allowed with the ability to dispose of oil in metal containers with screw cap lids only.

Note: commercial equipment is used for all live cookery classes and competitors must bring their own lighting equipment for gas stove tops.

Each station is equipped with 1 x 10-amp supply with a 3-way multi box. Any equipment that is over 10amps that is used and causes the system to trip will have the competitor/team immediately disqualified.

The work stations are a temporary feature for the competition. Care must be taken by all competitors and helpers of all the wires in and around the oven and benches that no pans are placed on wires to cause damage.

NZ HOSPITALITY CHAMPIONSHIPS 2017

In association with NZChefs

Competitor Kitchens are equipped with a Blue Seal Evolution Series convection oven with 6 gas hobs and adjacent Simply Stainless work bench 1800cm long, 700cm wide and 900cm high.

Limited Refrigeration, some deep freeze space and cold water are provided.

Time Allocation for all Kitchen Classes:

The time allocation for the Live Kitchen classes will be strictly enforced.

Provided there are no unforeseen difficulties,  $\frac{1}{4}$ ,  $\frac{1}{2}$  and  $\frac{3}{4}$  times will be given.

A 10 minutes-to-go call will be given, and from 5 minutes-to-go, every minute will be called.

Temperature of Food Served and the Use of Temperature Probes

Any protein that is insufficiently cooked will not be judged. The plate will be wrapped (marked with class, competitor and bench number) and kept until after the competition has been completed.

Temperature probes may be used by the Judges to test the temperature of served food items.

Liquid Nitrogen:

Liquid nitrogen may only be used in a class in accordance with the material safety data sheet #0048 and #0049 as issued by BOC Limited.

Any use of liquid nitrogen outside the above guidelines will disqualify the competitors immediately.

Equipment and Wash-up Area:

A wash up area is available in the marquee outside the doors by Competitor Registration. Please leave the area clean and tidy.

Please remove all equipment as all equipment will be discarded 30 minutes after the end of judging of the final competition each day.

Under no circumstances is any equipment to be stored in any area overnight or at the end of the final day.

Recipes and Description Cards:

The compulsory template is downloadable from the NZChefs website (Recipe Card Template).

The required number of recipe & description cards form part of the class criteria, and must be brought to the competition for all Live Kitchen, Static classes and certain Restaurant & Café classes.

Failure to bring recipe and description cards disqualifies the entry and it will not be judged.

One copy of the recipe card must be sent to competitions@nzchefs.org.nz (File name: Competitor Number - Class Name - Class Number – Recipe Card) prior to the competition.

The recipe card is to include weights of ingredients, preparation required, method of cooking and must be typed in English.

The description card, i.e. how the dish would be described on a menu, is to be typed in English. Recipes and description cards must be typed and suitable for use in a commercial environment (see below).
