Welcome to the Auckland Regional Championships 2017 Class Criteria for Dilmah High Tea

Class – ARO11 Live Dilmah High Tea Date

60 minutes

A team event consisting of two (2) members: One (1) Chef and One (1) Restaurant Service Person.

Each team will be required to present a High Tea setting to two (2) Guests and prepare one (1) judge's plate, and one (1) for photography, four (4) portions in total.

Special Prize: Dilmah Tea Scholarship - National winners to travel to Sri Lanka in February 2018 to take part in the Dilmah School of Tea, and to mentor students at the MJF Charitable Foundation Culinary Centre.

The winners must be able to travel to Sri Lanka, (travel dates and details with NZChefs Office) and if not, then the next runners up shall be offered the travel prize for those two competitors.

Regional winners receive monetary contribution to travel to the National final in Auckland.

Cookery Criteria:

Must be served to guests, then immediately followed by the judge's presentations. Part A

- i. Two (2) different food items, served to two (2) guests.
- ii. One (1) separate food item, presented with the completed table presentation. (*see note below).

Part B.

i. Two (2) plated food presentations including Teas as an ingredient, one (1) for judging and one (1) for photos, they must be identical as served to the guests, you must also include separately, the food item being presented on the table as part of the table presentation. Two copies of menu descriptions and recipes MUST be included for the judges.

All food items can be brought in completely finished but plating up and any garnishing if required must be done during the competition. You must serve two (2) of these food items using tea as an ingredient, one (1) Sweet and one (1) Savoury item using Dilmah Tea where the flavour of the tea is clearly evident. They may be served warm or cold. The Chef; will assist the Service Person in taking the dishes to the table, explaining their food style and the rationale behind the tea used within the food. This is a very small component but interaction with the guests must be observed.

(*Note) The third food item is of your choosing, either sweet or savoury, warm or cold, it does not require tea as an ingredient; but it must be paired with one of the teas served to the table as outlined below. This 3rd item is not marked as a food item alone, but in how well it is match to the tea being served, it is this item that must be placed on the completed Presentation Table just prior to guests being seated.

Restaurant Service Criteria:

Must be served to guests, then immediately followed by the judge's presentations. Competitors are required to prepare and present two (2) different 'tea based' beverages to two (2) guests and (1) judge's tea, and one (1) for photography, four (4) portions in total. One of these teas must be paired with the third food item (*see Note) above, it is judged on how well it complements the flavours and texture of the food.

Both tea's must be brewed and poured in front of the judges.

Two copies of menu descriptions and recipes MUST be on the table.

The beverages will be:

- 1.) A loose leaf black tea, served hot. Sponsors product to be used.
- 2.) A hot or cold tea cocktail (with alcohol) OR hot tea comforter (alcohol optional) brewed from either loose tea or a tea bag (may be a flavoured tea variety).

The tea cocktail or comforter requires a name and recipe card to be displayed. Sponsors product to be used.

Competitors will have 30 minutes to set up and dress a table to display the food item and beverages, then a further 30 minutes to brew and serve the beverages.

Both team members will be required to present the food items to the guests, explaining rationale in the food/tea matching, the teas used and answering any queries. Competitors are to supply all ingredients and equipment.

Further information on teas available in New Zealand will be emailed on registration along with tips and advice on tea.
