Meet NZ's newest MasterChef - hear his story!

Before entering MasterChef, Sam had had a successful career as a coffee trainer and had worked in Melbourne, Vancouver and Auckland. He is no stranger to winning competitions either, having won the 2016 New Zealand Barista Championship, as well as the 2015 and 2013 New Zealand Latte Art Championships.

Sam made headlines in 2020 when he transformed his managed isolation and quarantine meals into picture-perfect plated dishes.

We have the opportunity for a Q & A session with Sam. Bring along your questions and let Sam offer his guidance.
